Making a difference through law

TO VICTOR A. ROTOLO, THE ROTOLO LAW FIRM IS NOT JUST a business. It is an opportunity to make a difference in the lives of clients and give back to the community. When individuals or businesses trust The Rotolo Law Firm with their legal matters, the firm's lawyers work aggressively and passionately to win results.

COLLABORATE AND COMMUNICATE Clients who retain a Rotolo lawyer hire a true partner who works collaboratively with them on their legal concerns. Rotolo attorneys are highly prepared, assertive, proactive and committed to clients' causes. It's this methodology that has helped Rotolo earn a place on the New Jersey Super Lawyers® list four years in a row. "We don't shrink from the challenge or the opponent," he adds. "We go in and we fight—with unwavering preparation and dedication. No adversary will outwork us. That's what our clients expect from us and that's what we do."

PRACTICE AREAS At the full-service trial law firm, Rotolo attorneys focus on personal injury cases including medical negligence, wrongful death and products liability; family law and business disputes; wills and estates litigation; and criminal and juvenile justice. In addition, the firm works on employment cases involving workers' compensation, disability, wrongful termination, workplace discrimination and sexual harassment.

FIRST IN UNIFORM, THEN THE BAR Rotolo, who has nearly 30 years of legal experience, opened his own firm in 1987 to continue helping his community. It's a mission he started as an Elizabeth police officer before going back to school to earn a law degree. With attention to detail, exceptional legal skills and effective and efficient strategies, Rotolo built his seven-lawyer team. "People come to us with something that is important to them, and we take each matter very seriously," he says. "It's a tremendous duty for us to have that responsibility, and we try with everything we've got to get you where you want to go."

GIVING BACK For two decades, Rotolo has shared his considerable expertise in trial law teaching students and lawyers as an adjunct professor at Hofstra University Law School and with the National Institute for Trial Advocacy. Rotolo, who is certified by the New Jersey Supreme Court as a civil trial attorney, also belongs to the Million Dollar Advocates Forum, an organization for lawyers who have won million- and multi-million-dollar verdicts and settlements. Less than one percent of attorneys in the United States are members.
